Chapter 1 by Story Wars

My name is Evely. I am a ordinary 16 year old girl who lived in the White Kingdom. My mother left me at the gates of the kingdom when I was born and died straight after. I had lovely parents who adopted me called Daisy and John.

I secretly went out with this boy called Mirror. We would always meet at the lake. He would always tell me these amazing poems about princes, queens and witches. I tried to impress him with poems I made up but they weren't very good. I would say "Mirror, Mirror on the lake, You're sweeter than a piece of cake."

There was this women called Lucilifa. She was the evil fairy who turned everyone asleep in the Sleeping Kingdom. One day she went to the White kingdom. She said that I belonged to her. She grabbed me and took me away. Mirror tried to saved me but Lucilifa wouldn't let him. She put a curse on him to make him live in a golden mirror forever.

Now I have to look upon him everyday. Lucilifa hung him up on my room with a magic spell. He is unable to come back down. Lucilifa now tries to teach me the ways of the dark side even though I refuse, but when I do she adds more to my training. I try to find a way to get out of Lucilifa's castle, but she stops me every time. The yellow, dead grass goes on for miles, but sometimes if

I look hard enough I can see long, green hills that peak over Lucilifa's black thorn garden. Tonight I have a plan though. I open my door a tiny crack and slip through. I have memorized where all the creaky boards are so I step around them boldly. Then I reach the room. It's double wooden doors seem to gleam in the night. I run into the library and start my research. First I must find the curse Lucilifa did to Mirror, then next to it should be the counter curse. After a long time I finally found the book.

I didn't know it at first though. I had thought it would just be a guide to helping me find the one I was looking for until a something seemed to catch my eye. 'Chapter 4: Magic in the Mirrors'. I quickly rushed to page 357 and searched for the one. Then I found a spell labled A man's mirror.
